

Providing High speed connectivity to Rural Universities

Raul Amaya, Chief Technology Officer, Avantel

“To deliver on our slogan of “productivity without limits” to our clients, Nokia Networks is our first-choice vendor for enabling the roll out of VoLTE and small cells in Colombia. Nokia also is the sole supplier of our LTE network and together we have gained a crucial first-mover advantage in delivering an unmatched service experience to our subscribers, who are the heart of every initiative undertaken at Avantel.”
